

SPANISH LANGUAGE, LITERATURE AND CULTURE IN THE ANDES

Program description:

Get from 3 up to 15 university credits for studying Latin American Literature and Culture at the Academia Latinoamericana de Español – Equatorial University. Choose from courses such as Regional Literature of Hispanic America, Hispanic-American Culture and Civilization, Indigenous Cultures, Regional History of Hispanic America or Hispanic-American Literature since 1888, while you discover the wonderful and exotic Andean countries of Ecuador, Peru or Bolivia.

You may study either in the multi-ethnic city of Quito, capital of Ecuador; in Cusco, Peru, a town full of history and capital of the ancient Inca Empire; or in the traditional, picturesque town of Sucre in Bolivia. A great way to explore our countries is to combine several destinations.

Accommodation during the whole program is provided in local host families, so you are fully immersed in the Spanish language while getting to know our culture and our incredibly warm-hearted people - and at the same time this is a unique opportunity to make friends for a lifetime from all over the world.
