

Youth Rehabilitation Volunteers

Highlights

- Working with young people who are often forgotten about or ignored by the rest of society.
- Seeing the young people develop new skills and confidence allowing them a brighter future.
- Living and volunteering in and around Cusco – one of South America's most beautiful cities.

About the Project

The first Monday at the Academia is an orientation day. All new students and volunteers go on a city tour of Cusco to get to know the city and learn how to get around and use the public transport system. In the afternoon there's an information session in which you will learn about the Academia, as well as about important issues such as security, do's and don'ts in Cusco, accommodation, volunteer work etc. Your volunteer placement commences on Tuesday of the first week.

This is a social reinsertion project for youths who have been in trouble with the law. The aim is to get these young people back on the straight and narrow, allowing them to develop a successful future, and steer them away from crime. The youths are between the ages of 12 and 20 years. The project provides educational and vocational activities as well as support and development to the youths, for whom often the most important thing is the realization that someone cares about them.

Volunteer Role

You will work alongside centre staff to provide support and assistance to the youths. Many workshops are held, including those focused on personal development and issues that have effected many of the youths such as alcoholism, drug addiction, sexual health and personal values. Vocational workshops are also important and currently include shoe making, sewing and agriculture. By arming the young people with new skills and knowledge you will be helping them to secure a better future through legal paid work. Educational classes are also provided, covering topics such as health, the environment, cultural identity and computing. Finally, the project organizes fun activities for the youths, such as sports, crafts and performing arts. You will be involved in some or all of these activities.

You will work Monday – Friday, either 8am – 1pm, or 2pm – 5pm. You will have weekends off to spend as you wish.

Location

The project is located in Cusco, 20-25 minutes by bus from the Academia.

The city of Cusco sits perched amidst the clouds and the lush Andean greenery at 3300 meters above sea level. Due to the high elevation, it is cool at night, and sunny but cool during the day all year-round - this can be a great excuse to seek out the many markets selling the beautiful wool sweaters and textiles for which the country is renowned!

It's undoubtedly the archaeological capital of the Americas, as the gateway to Machu Picchu, and as such, is an exciting place to spend an extended period of time. Not only is it surrounded by beautiful Incan ruins, but you will be living in the hustle and bustle of a tourist city that still manages to retain many of its traditional ways of life. The narrow cobblestoned streets are lined with imposing Inca-built walls, and the plazas are thronged with Quechua-speaking descendants of the Incas.

Since Cusco is such an important tourist destination, it's no surprise to hear that there is a huge wealth of cafes, restaurants, bars and nightclubs to keep you entertained - a fun and varied social life is guaranteed in Cusco! Shopping is also another favorite past time amongst volunteers and students in Cusco, with some of the best places to pick up jewellery, leather crafts, textiles, woollen sweaters, musical instruments and other artisan products.

Accommodation

You will stay either at the student residence or with a host family. Host family accommodation includes a private room, breakfast, dinner and laundry service. Singles, married couples and parents with children can all be accommodated. It is also possible to stay in a student residence – one is located within the school grounds, and there are two very nearby. Here you will self cater - there are shops and markets very nearby and a fully equipped kitchen.

Requirements

Volunteers must be able to commit to at least 4 weeks at the project in order to build up a trusting relationship with the children and staff.

All volunteers must hold a high intermediate level of spoken Spanish. If your Spanish is at a lower level, you must join our Spanish language school prior to commencing your volunteer work.

When choosing to volunteer in a developing country such as Peru, it is important to remain flexible as the needs of the project are constantly evolving. This is what makes volunteering so rewarding – the fact that you are on hand to lend your support when and where it is needed. By choosing Academia Latinoamericana de Español you will have a comprehensive safety network behind you as we are here to help throughout the duration of your entire stay!

Feedback

“These young people have simply become a little lost in life, and they need a helping hand in being guided back onto the right path. I enjoyed spending time talking with them and would recommend other volunteers to do the same, as it makes a real difference to them, and to your experience at the project.”

Ollantaytambo fortress, where the Inca fought their last battle with the Spanish invaders. Pisac Indian market – one of the most well-known markets in the country, selling everything from textiles and paintings to vegetables and animals!

The most famous route is via the multi-day Inca Trail route, however, there are plenty of alternative routes that also culminate in Machu Picchu, including a scenic train journey!
